Avilla High School

Class of 1951

A 1996 Portrait

Preface

Forty-five short years ago, thirty-six well-educated graduates, eager to share their talents with the world, marched out of the halls of Avilla High and went their separate ways. Surviving life's ups and downs, we can now reconvene to look back and recognize how little we really knew on graduation day.

We learned a lot during the years between pimples and potbellies.

After graduation, our education began in earnest. Arlo Schilling's lessons became more meaningful as we took front row seats to the history of our community. Leaving behind cafeteria lunches and hot dogs at Leo's, we became personally acquainted with the finer attributes of microwave ovens. Instead of cheering our beloved Panthers on to victory, we enthusiastically applauded our toddler's first big step. Through the magic of television, we gazed in wonder at the first moonwalk; horrified, we watched the assassination of a president; and from our La-Z-Boys, we used our remote controls to watch O.J.'s infamous Bronco ride. More recently, we've become active participants in the Computer Age as our grandchildren patiently explain the functions of cursors, floppy disks, and cold boots - words foreign to our high school vocabularies.

Leaving behind the insecurities of adolescence, we've become successful and confident parents, teachers, politicians, engineers, accountants, cooks, auto dealers, truckers, managers, factory workers and more. Some of us remained in the land of our forefathers. More adventurous, others scattered from Florida to California. In attempting to live up to our class motto, we've painted ourselves into a few corners, but we've created some mighty fine masterpieces, as well.

We've experienced trials and triumphs in life's pursuit and eagerly anticipate the golden years just ahead. A few us have already "been there and done that"; but for most, with the responsibilities of career and child-rearing behind, the time and resources are now available to discover the world described in our geography books.

Together, we learned our Three R's - Reading, 'Riting, and 'Rithmetic. It's time to add a fourth: Reminiscing. We went our separate ways in 1951. Now in 1996, let's take a look at who we were and what we have become.

Sincere thanks is extended to each contributor, especially for the photographs. If a picture is worth a thousand words, then there are volumes in our collection. We have enjoyed our own private class reunion compiling this record for and about you, fellow classmates of the Avilla High School Class of 1951.

SCIENCE

- Why do we not raise silk worms in the U. S.? We get our silk from Rayon. He is a larger animal and gives more silk.
- The dinosaur became extinct after the flood because they were too big to get on the ark.
- One by-product of cattle raising is calves.
- In the spring, the salmon ascends the fresh water streams to spawn.
- The moon is a planet just like the earth, only deader.
- Iron was discovered because somebody smelt it.
- What happens when there is an eclipse of the sun? A great many people come out to see it.
- The four seasons are salt, pepper, mustard and vinegar.
- A triangle which has an angle of 135 degrees is called an obscene triangle.
- Describe the circulation of the blood. It flows down one leg and up the other.
- Name three relative pronouns. Aunt, uncle and brother.
- The men who followed Jesus around were called "The Twelve Opposums".
- A scout obeys all to whom obedience is due and respect all duly constipated authorities.
- Syntax is all the money collected by the Catholic Church from sinners.
- A virgin forest is a forest in which the hand of man has never set foot.
- The general direction of the Alps is straight up.
- Most of the houses in France are made from Plaster of Paris.
- The climate is hottest next to the creator.

So What's New?

The children now love luxury, they have bad manners, contempt for authority, they show disrespect for their elders and love chatter in place of exercise. They contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up dainties at the table and tyrannize their teacher.

AVILLA, INDIANA, THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1950

Junior Class To Present Play "Willie -- At Work" March 30-31

The Junior Class of Avilla School will present, "Danger — Willie At Work," in the school auditorium, March 30 and 31 at 8 O'clock.

Willie's family never knew a dull moment. He intends to be an inventor, and his experiments at times fairly rock the house. When he isn't trying to turn his guinea pigs into girls, he's making his best friends disappear. Most of Willie's experiments go wrong—with explosive results, and we mean explosives.

You certainly won't want to miss the Avilla Junior play "Danger—Willie At Work", March 30 and 31. You'll see J. P. Noffze as Willie, C. Beckberger and J. Duehmig as his parents, M. Hippenhammer as his sister, D. Snell, his pal, and W. Stice is his girlfriend (she hopes.) L. Knach, B. Moore, M. Helmkamp, R. Sheets, C. Smith, and D. Worman add to the hilarity of this three act comedy that Miss Miller is directing.

In some special numbers D. Crist and E. Scheurich will give readings, and M. Walker and B. Uhl will sing a duet.

Get your tickets from any junior: Adults 40 cents, Children 25 cents tax included and be in your seats promptly for an eight o'clock curtain.

SCHOOLS CLOSED DUE TO ROAD CONDITIONS

The Avilla and LaOtto Schools are closed due to the muddy conditions of the roads in this area. The county roads are now in the worst condition that they have been in many years due to the excessive rainfall, heavy snows and the continuous freezing and thawing.

This type weather is a test on roads and the thin coating of gravel and the heavy traffic on these county roads is more than they can stand. Many roads are completely impassable, while those that are open to traffic are full of deep ruts and gullies, taking one back to the pictures of the horse and buggy days showing the unimproved roads with the team standing knee deep in mud.

The mail service has been hampered by the road conditions to the place that only a part of the mail is being delivered.

LAST DAY OF SCHOOL?

Remember... lunching on fried baloney sandwiches at Annie Brown's ...or hot dogs and vanilla phosphates at Leo's ...freezing your tail off in Koons Lockers ...buying gas for much less than a dollar per gallon at the Sinclair Station ...selling candy at the school candy counter under the stairs ...letting old Doc Veazey and Doc Sneary treat everything that ailed you ...buying fancy plastic flower crinkly bow gift-wrapped packages at Alberta's Hardware ...the free picture shows at LaOtto, Avilla and Swan ...a trip with Donn Snell through Devils's Hollow ...when Donn taught LaVera to drive and she drove into the gravel pile...cold wintry rides on Ralph Southern's neat and tidy or Danny Myer's anything goes school bus ...three weeks of school missed because of muddy roads ...when Brittie Baker searched every head for head lice ...when boys got a whuppin' by janitor Jess Cramer for throwing snow balls ...sneaking to the furnace room for a cigarette ...the old gym at LaOtto where there was only a foot between the ceiling and the rim of the basketball hoop ...where it flooded every time it rained ...the sweet orange and sack of candy treated by bus drivers at Christmas time ...goulash for lunch at LaOtto School cafeteria ...or a bowl of chile and a cinnamon roll at Avilla ...Mr. Clean, Avilla janitor, Tater Anderson, and his ring of keys swinging from his hip ...stomping in the balcony to cheer the Panthers on to victory ...wearing Dad's white shirt and jeans to school on Special Days ...wearing hair up in curlers - only on Fridays ...ballerina skirts with crinolines ...when the elastic broke in Jeanne's bloomers ...and when Paul Martin sewed her button back on her blouse ...the round mirror Vuirl Christensen installed so girls could comb their hair and see the results ...Baked Alaska and Floating Island in Eighth Grade Home Ec ...when LaVera swallowed her money before she could spend it at Annie's ...when cars had clutches and new drivers didn't know the difference between the clutch and brake pedals ...getting to be the second class to take Driver's Training - and the first to include both New York and Washington D. C. on the Senior Trip ...observing Daylight Savings Time in 1949, 50 and 51 ...class president, Joe Duehmig, valedictorian Rosemary Sheets and salutatorian Marilyn Hippenhammer ...when Carole Smith won the Lane cedar chest from McKee & Clark ...the candid camera recording everything from LaVera in the outhouse to Lynn in the tub ...

AND LOOKING AT THE PRESENT

Connie (Beckberger) Grossman

4225 North 21st St #11
Phoenix AZ 85016
602-912-0732

Connie's family includes husband Howard Grossman, daughters Cherie and Susan Oberlick and surrogate granddaughters Shannon and Sarah Hardt. She has also been mentoring a woman for the past 1-1/2 years that had been homeless. The woman has three children, two of whom are honor students. She has been employed at a company for 1-1/2 years and was honored as the Employee of the Year in May 1996 by St. Joseph the Worker, an organization that helps people (some homeless) find employment.

Connie started working in the Tucson automobile business in July 1951 as a secretary. She continued working in dealerships in various capacities and continued to progress. After spending 20 years as controller of a leasing/rental company, she retired ten years ago and became an auto broker - selling/leasing vehicles, a position she holds today. Connie also serves on the Board of Directors of the Downtown Neighborhood Learning Center, which helps people get off welfare, obtain their GEDs and go on to college, trade schools etc. In spare time she plays tennis, rides horseback, hikes, travels, reads and spends time with her husband and daughters.

A star was placed in her crown in July 1980 when she was selected by the National Endowment for the Humanities to attend a 30-day seminar at the University of Maine in Orono on The Origin, Development and Prospects for Small Businesses in the United States. She was one of 14 men and women selected from the United States to attend.

She has belonged to Altrusa International, Inc. of Phoenix, a service club, for the past 8-1/2 years and just completed two years as president. Involved in Phoenix literacy programs, Altrusa conducts fund raisers to solicit moneys for scholarships which are granted to people learning to read and continuing their education. Their biggest success was a Corporate Spelling Bee, which netted $34,000 in cash and in-kind. "Becky" is living up to her nickname of Speedy.

Connie fumes when people tell her they will do something, whether it be for fun, a community project, or whatever, then not follow through or even call.

She thinks spectators may remember the time she, Marilyn H. and Esther W. were twirling at a home basketball half-time show. After throwing an aerial toss, her baton hit the ceiling, bounced off and hit a spectator sitting in the balcony. The surprised fan tossed the baton back and Connie continued twirling. She also recalls being in the Junior Play, "Danger Willie at Work", with John Noffze and the cast being worried that she would forget her lines or start stuttering. As she recalls, the play was a success.

A high-stepping twirler.

Audrey (Buehrer) Halferty

8834 Seiler Road
New Haven IN 46774-9602
219-749-1784

Audrey's red hair is not a true indicator of her personality, as she says she has never been bothered by "pet peeves." A highlight in her life was the special occasion when she, her daughter, son-in-law and husband were baptized by immersion in Israel's Jordan River.

A member of the First Assembly of God church and area board member and officer of Aglow International, Audrey has enjoyed travels to England, Wales, Scotland, Mexico, Israel and Ireland. She and Ken have travelled in Ireland four times, and Ken would like to retire there.

The Halferty children include Kenneth, Kirby (who was called home to heaven during a mission trip to Mexico in 1990), and Valerie (Mrs. Don Graham). They also list in their family a grand-dog, Phoebe. Audrey recalls the song at graduation, "when we (you) walk through the night, hold your head up high and don't be afraid of the dark." She traded auburn curls for pink cheeks the day she stepped into a hole and fell, ungracefully, in front of a large group of people. Hobbies include house plants and reading.

This bus seat would be more comfortable if George would get off my lap.

Boyd Campbell

290 N Center St
Waterloo IN 46793
219-837-7987

Boyd and his wife, the former Helen A. Campbell, have two sons and three daughters. They are proud of their fourteen grandchildren. Boyd was a maintenance superintendent for six years at Sheller Globe in Grabill and 7-1/2 years at Federal Gear in Kendallville before retirement from the work force.

He likes to camp, fish, attend flea markets and is involved with the Michiana Toy Tractor Club. Our snoopy reporter could find no evidence of the Busy Beaver Farm forecast by the class 1951 fortune teller.

Boyd is peeved with the fact that he is not able to get out and work with others as much as he'd like and says breaking both arms in a motorcycle accident was probably one of his more embarrassing situations.

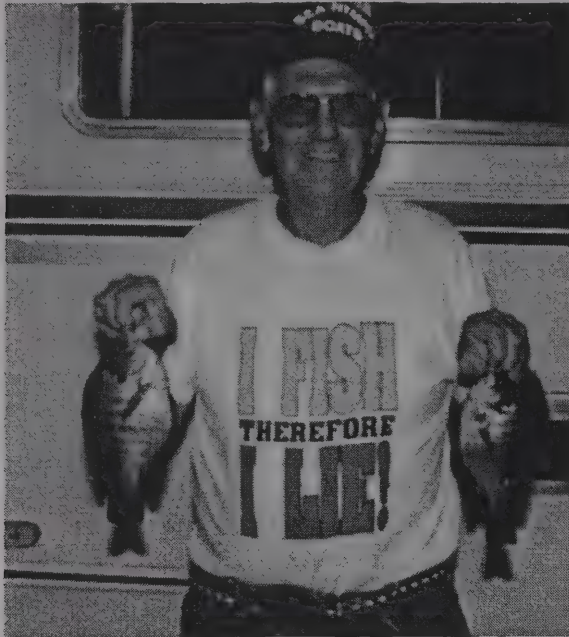

Where's Boyd?

There's Tom, Bob, Evelyn, Marilyn Walker, Jeanne and Bob. And Bud, Audrey, Phyllis and LaVera. But no Boyd.

Robert Coil

2975 W Wolf Lake Rd
Albion IN 46701
219-636-2066

After graduating from high school, Bob went into construction work with a Fort Wayne company. A couple of years later, Uncle Sam selected him for two years of Army life, and he spent 18 months in Germany. After working several jobs and "bumming around", he took the plunge and got married in 1957. In 1962 Bob took employment with Dana and retired in 1993 after a 31-year career. Now he says he does whatever he feels like doing - and that does not include teaching Civics at a well-known university as predicted in 1951. (We suspect he still likes girls and dislikes school.)

Bob and his wife Helen have a son David and say "one is enough."

In 1965 the Coils bought a small 6-acre farm with a large yard and lots of flowers. Retirement allows time for woodworking and fishing when Bob isn't working in his yard. His hit list includes people who don't use their turn signals. Bob says he has led a rather dull life, but if one is to believe the message in his photo, it must have been a hoot!

Dale Crist

3950 Mountain Vista Apt 181
Las Vegas NV
702-898-8989

Voted the noisiest boy in class and predicted to have been happily married and building a beautiful mansion in Devil's Hollow, Dale proved the fortune teller wrong. His mansion isn't in Devil's Hollow. We found Dale and his wife Pat living in the gambler's mecca, where he is now repairing vending machines.

Dale has lived in both Arizona and Nevada and has had several interesting occupations since leaving the services of Uncle Sam. He has three children: Rodney, Debbie and Brian.

George Diehm

7733 E 1000N
Kendallville IN 46755
219-347-0991

After driving truck 36 years for Hudsons, George appreciates the free time spent fishing, woodworking and traveling with his wife, Dolores. He is a member of the Avilla Lutheran Church.

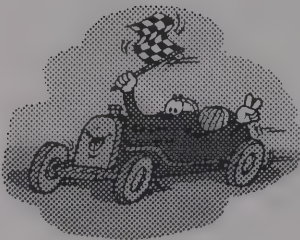

George has a son Mark and two grandsons - Dustin and Korbyn.

Memories of the past include the trip west made after graduation with Joe Duehmig and Donn Snell. George also recalls the time he, Neil Simon and someone else went to Chicago to spend the day. They were stopped on Chicago's Outer Drive and arrested for not obeying the speed limit. The guys really wanted to observe the traffic laws, but their 1927 Chevy would only run 40 mph. They eventually made it home. George got caught trying to sneak upstairs and had to go milk the cows before taking off again to enjoy the day - with no sleep in the previous 24 hours. If people would never talk about you behind your back, and if drivers wouldn't pass only to stop and turn left in front of you, the world would be a happier place, according to George.

No one really believed that George would marry Lana Turner or train to be a movie star, and as for the cute little shack at the edge of the big, thriving city of Avillawell Avilla has a shack.

*If I could drive a car,
I'd go to Chicago.*

Eleanor (Dressler) Shearer

1215 S Urban St
Auburn IN 46706
219-925-3949

A homemaker, Evelyn reports the highlights of her past 45-year career have been her family. She and husband Merl raised three children - Ronnie, Randy and Carol. It is with regrets that they note the passing of daughter Carol in 1996. There are two granddaughters and two grandsons.

A member of the Lutheran Church in Auburn, her hobbies include needlework - crocheting in particular. Evelyn and Merl are Blue Grass Festival enthusiasts, and their motor home takes them all over the country to attend these gatherings.

Evelyn's predicted future included teaching a new course "How To Get Along With Bookkeeping Teachers" as a professor in a large college. Well, it never happened.

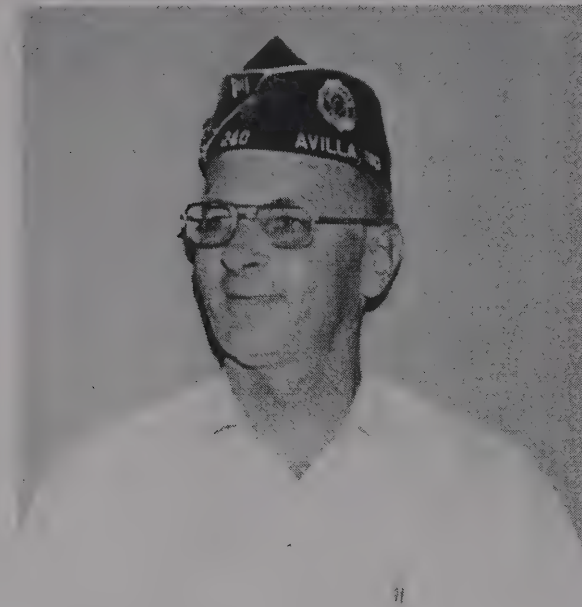

Remember the Senior Class Play?

The cast included Connie, Donn, Wretha, Barbara, Rosemary, Phyllis, Joe, Mary, Marilyn, LaVera, Dale, John, Marilyn and Richard, along with director, Fern Miller.

Joseph Duehmig

PO Box 410
Avilla In 46710
219-897-3201

Joe has yet to jump into the political arena to fulfill the prophecy of serving as president of the United States, but he is a successful member of the Avilla community. Joe and his wife, the former Sharon DeLucenay, have four sons - two Purdue graduates and two Indiana University. Their family also includes a granddaughter and a grandson.

Joe earned his BSEE degree at Tri-State University and worked for IBM, Sorbus, Inc. and Bell Atlantic Systems. He spent four years in the Air Force on a B47 bomber. He is especially proud of his Honorary Captain Certificate on A DC8 jetliner.

He is a member of St. Mary's Church and the American Legion Post 240 in Avilla. Currently serving as Allen Township Trustee-assessor, he will retain that position until 1998.

He thinks this country could do without most politicians and bureaucrats (with the possible exception of Senator Richard Worman, of course.)

It's hard to believe that Joe would admit to this; but this is the way he tells it. Neil Simon held a beer party at his house one night. A couple of fellows, including Innocent Joe, drove past Neil's house with a red plastic dish covering a spotlight shining from their car. When they entered the house, the beer keg was not in sight. It had made a quick exit to a building out back, with the help of Neil and his buddies.

Memories from the past include the good times with classmates at parties, the skating rink, and most of all, the senior trip.

Donna (Frederick) Mumaw

451 Pleasant St
Kendallville IN 46755
219-347-2065

here with her), high on her favorite people list.

More than a few proud Grandma buttons popped when her grandson Chris, a straight-A student, received a $20,000 award from the Wolf Foundation at graduation.

Donna has varied artistic interests. She paints on glass bottles, saw blades, milk cans and T-shirts and can be called upon to create floral arrangements for weddings, funerals and special occasions.

Management at her place of employment quickly learned of Donna's loyalty to her country when they asked employees to learn to speak Spanish in order to better communicate with Mexican employees. "This is my country," she said, "Let them learn to speak English."

From her memory book, Donna found a page when just a few of the senior boys had cars to drive.

.....1951 - Come on a My House - hit song

Ann (Garman) Hosted

6582 N 100E
Wawaka IN 46794
219-636-2293

Ann and Paul L Hosted were married in 1954 and have three children: P. Jeff and Dan Hosted, and Amy (Hosted) Drerup. Grandchildren include Nick, Mike, Stacy, Ryan, Kyle and Tiffany Hosted; and Amanda and Kayla Drerup.

Ann worked at East Noble and Central Noble Schools as a substitute teacher and played baseball for South Bend Blue Sox one year. She was a Sunday School teacher for more than 45 years and has been bowling for years. She says she coached softball and baseball until she "got too old and hung up the spikes at 60."

Having three children and eight grandchildren and seeing all of the achievements these loved ones have accomplished are her proudest moments.

She has too many pet peeves to list. Ann remembers the great class that she went to school with and is sorry that some of them are gone.

The only accomplished actress in our group, Ann played a role in the movie "A League of Our Own".

Born: 3/11/33
Avilla, IN
Height: 5'6"
Weight: 140
Batted: Right
Threw: Right

A sure-handed first baseman for South Bend in 1953, this Hoosier committed only 7 errors in the one season she played for a fielding percentage of .967. Although Ann's time in the league was short she enjoyed it thoroughly. After leaving the league, she's become a teacher and has raised a family.

Donald Gienger

9814 E Baseline Rd
Avilla IN 46710
219-897-3611

Patriotic Don said yes to Uncle Sam and saw active duty in Germany. Returning to the states and failing to make his fortune in Hadacol, he chose a career at International Harvester. After retiring, he is now holding down three jobs - at his bicycle shop, working for Kitco, and providing church janitor service.

Don and his wife, the former Donna Kinerk, have three sons and a daughter - Timothy, James, Eric, and Pamela (Haddock) - and six grandchildren. Leisure time activities include fishing. Don is a member of the Lutheran Church and the American Legion. He says his greatest achievement was making it through school. He recalls the dances at Twin Barns.

The world would be a better place if people didn't say they would arrive at a certain time and then come an hour late, according to the Gienger rule book.

Don recalls the time Neil Simon, George Probst and a young man who shall remain nameless (to protect the guilty) "borrowed" a bag of onions. Somehow, the onions ended up being rolled up Kenny Helmer's front yard. The next day at school, the smelly little veggies showed up in Ag Class and Mr. Marshall thanked the contributors, without mentioning names. (He didn't need to.) The contributors ended up judging the onions. In 1951, Don disliked onions. Wonder if his tastes have changed.

Lynn Halferty

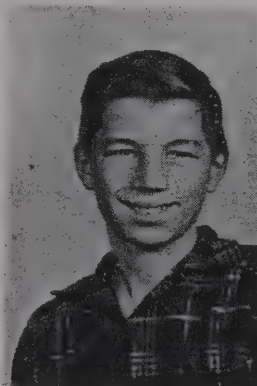

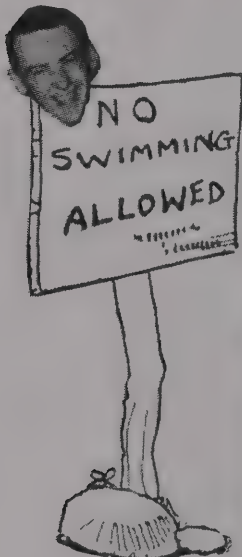

PO Box 112
South Milford IN 46786
219-351-2341

After graduation, Lynn, Bob Coil and a friend shared a room in Fort Wayne while spending their days in construction work. He never quite made it to the Indian Reservation somewhere in Arizona with his squaw, Little Running Water. Instead, Lynn chose classmate Carole Smith as his squaw, and she presented him with four papooses: Dan, Randy, Doug and Cathy. Grandchildren include Scott, Heather, Erik, Iden and Beki; and great-grandchildren are Madison and Moriah.

For ten years, Lynn and Carole took vacations by touring western United States and Canada on a motorcyle, with Lynn driving and Carole riding shotgun. They traveled with her sister and brother-in-law. The two ladies, always having a good time, were giggling and carrying on (as usual) at a park where they had stopped to don rainsuits. A local law enforcement officer (with an attitude, Carole thinks) decided the girls had been tipping the bottle a bit too often and needed to be hauled in to protect society. The husbands came to their defense and convinced the officer their 40-some year old wives were decent, law-abiding citizens who had not been drinking anything stronger than water, and that they always acted silly.

Lynn has worked at J. O. Mory's for thirty years as an electrician in construction and is better known to his co-workers as "Pops." He enjoys woodworking in spare time and is growing old gracefully in South Milford with Carole by his side.

Franklin (Bud) Harter

2626 Greenview Ave
Fort Wayne IN 46809
219-747-5858

Bud and his wife, the former Garnet Richards celebrated 41 years of happy married life before her decease on July 30, 1994. They were blessed with a daughter, Tina Marie (Dawson) and a grandson Ryan Lee Dawson (17), both residents of Raleigh, North Carolina.

A tool grinder at Zollner Corporation of 37 years, Bud also served as a tool maker at General Electric six years.

The Panther's Pause predicted Bud, known as "Speed Demon" to be practicing for the 500-mile at Indy. His likes were listed as Ford cars. In 1996, things haven't changed. He still likes NASCAR - racing!

Boyd thinks that joke was funny, but Carole isn't so sure.

James Helmer

8510 Hawk Spring Hill
Fort Wayne IN
219-489-2311

A recently retired employee of Navistar, Jim is married and has five children. He served in the U. S. Air Force from 1951 to 1955 and saw both the hot and cold of it with duty in Alaska and California.

His hobbies include yard work, but he also likes to travel. Germany, Belgium, France and England are some of the countries he has toured. He was not particularly impressed with Paris.

The 1951 prediction for Jim was to have taken over the Veep's duties, serving under President Joe Duehmig - AND - waiting for death or impeachment so he could move up a notch. Hate to tell you, Jim, but you are getting too old. Better hurry if you want that job.

By golly, that joke was funny!

Class Song

*We walked down the corridor to the study hall.
It was crowded with seniors both big and both small,
Who asked Mister Helmer what he thought of us.
He said, "If I tell you, it'll start a fuss."*

*We've sung this song, but we'll sing it again.
Of the people we've met and the places we've been.
Of some of the studies that bothered my mind,
And a lot of good teachers that we've left behind, saying - So Long.*

Mary (Helmkamp) Ley

Box 416
Avilla IN 467610
219-897-2047

Mary finally admitted to the deep dark secret she has kept for 45 years. Her diploma was bought! Flunking Phys Ed and Home Ec, she was about to be expelled, but her father came through and bought off teachers Sisson and Finney. That cost him a tidy sum, but he claimed it was a bargain. Mary immediately set out on her life's adventure, which she says now seems like a bad dream. Since Bev, Wanda and LaVera had the good paying jobs all sewed up at DeLucenay's and Koons Market, Mary joined the circus as a trapeze artist and starred in the high wire acts until liposuction conducted by a quack changed her body contours so drastically she could no longer hang onto the trapeze. Anxious to remain in the public eye, she found a trusted plastic surgeon who could enhance her image enough to allow her to stand-in for Dolly Parton. Mary could never accept defeat! When she found herself out of a job because of deflation, she headed west. In Oklahoma, she accepted a position as head rodeo clown. A bunch of bull brought that position to a grinding halt. So she decided if she couldn't scare up the beef, she'd cook it. Slinging Big Macs was just a temporary means of avoiding starvation. She absolutely refused to run home to Momma! Hitting it big on a trip to Vegas, Mary donated 2% of her winnings to the starving orphans of Zimbabwe. A responsible donor, she flew there by ValuJet to see what her money was doing. The climate was such that poor Mary broke out in a tropical rash and had to return to the states. Having invested all of her winnings in hoola hoops, she was soon walking the streets with San Francisco bag ladies, but hanging around seedy motels brought on a few paid dates with some well-known politicians. Cupid's arrow found its mark in 1955. Her wedding was an extravaganza fit for Charles and Diane, (paid for by Daddy, of course) but it lasted longer. Donald, a Leyed back kind of guy, wasn't interested in Mary's past - only in her future. She vowed to count bedroom ceiling tiles whenever he requested, so he said "I do". There were eight Leys and 15 Leyettes. She is quite proud of her family.

Mary says she has no pet peeves, but she isn't particularly fond of Hillaryhair or Rush Limbaugh. Her proudest moments include being named Miss Harley Hog in 1952 and carrying the torch for Bug Eater Olympics in her wheel chair after the Hog dumped her.

This graduate with a purchased diploma has no memories of 1951 and is looking forward to meeting her classmates once again to find out just what really happened in the halls of Avilla High.

And now, for the rest of the story. Mary added a postnote explaining there were eight Leys because she was hard of hearing. Every night at bedtime, with a twinkle in his eye, Don asked, "You want to sleep or what?" "Whaaat?" she responded. After the eighth little Ley arrived, Don bought Mary a hearing aid. She says it was a Godsend.

Mary retired after 18 years at the Sacred Heart Home, but after seven years of the "Good Life", she found herself building sandwiches for vending machines. "Ain't life interesting?" she asks.

Marilyn (Hippenhammer) Brown

13023 Wesley Chapel Rd
Churubusco IN 46723
219-693-2303

Lowell Brown and Marilyn were married in 1952 and shared 43 years together before his death in November 1995. They have three sons, Greg, Scott and Randy; and a daughter, Sherry; and 8 grandchildren, two of which are deceased.

Marilyn worked in the Huntertown School office for 25 years, retiring in June 1995. She is a member of Robinson Chapel United Methodist Church and enjoys playing golf, bowling and reading. A die-hard Chicago Cubs fan, she is also a big fan of Indiana University basketball.

Greatest achievements are her children and grandchildren, and proudest moments for Marilyn include the achievements of her family.

She gets a bit peevish when people insist she must have her picture taken.

Memories from school include marching in the band, school plays and friends. Later in life, special times include her children's school activities and being involved in them. She has many happy memories of camping and traveling all over the United States with her husband and children.

I already have Betty Grable legs.

Are you sure I need Bette Davis eyes?

Lavera (Knach) McCoy

1875S 700E
Avilla IN 46710
219-897-2955

The girl voted best-looking, LaVera lists her career as that of a mother and housewife, with many, many part-time jobs along the way. She and husband Donald L. McCoy (pictured here) have six "best-looking" children: David L. (43), Kevin K. (41), Leann (39), Mark L. (36), Lynette (29) and Lori (28); and 11 grandchildren (2 deceased).

LaVera includes in her busy schedule church activities and volunteer work at Sacred Heart Home, in addition to creating wedding floral arrangements; decorating and selling birdhouses built by her husband; and running miles of thread through her machine, sewing everything from Barbie doll clothes to recovered furniture.

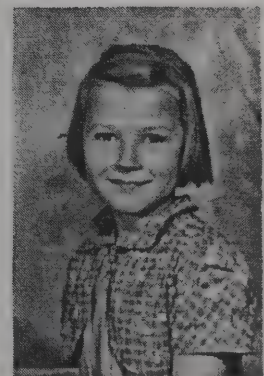

According to the class prophecy, she was supposed to have lived in the town of Swan. A homebody at heart, LaVera never left the house in which she first saw the light of day. Her adventurous spirit, however, has led her and Don all over the United States with travelling buddies, Dick and Clara Whan. Getting to see God's marvelous handiwork, first-hand, in all but two of the states in this great country has been educational, as well as fun. Life highlights for LaVera include a long and happy marriage which produced six children to raise and 11 grandchildren to enjoy. Having celebrated her mother's 100th birthday in 1995, LaVera plans on ignoring the aches and pains which come with old arthritic bones in order to attend a similar future celebration for herself.

LaVera would like to forget the time she ran into Arlo Schilling's car, and she giggles in remembering the cow standing in the middle of the railroad track on a foggy night. She really didn't think that feeding the LaOtto Rich ladies' goats her lunch sack at recess and then having to "stay in" after having her dastardly deed reported would appear in print - but our spies found out.

She wishes something would be done about the lack of discipline in some of our schools and homes. "Leaving God out of our public schools is a mistake; we need to renew respect for our country and each other."

Looking back to 1951, LaVera recalls Donn Snell's taxi service. She and Wretha learned to drive with his father's car, and in the process, rearranged a few mail boxes and gravel piles. She recalls wonderful times in being cheerleader and associating with all the great friends she had in school.

Bill Miller

14604 Gault St. #1
Van Nuys CA 91405
818-787-2059

Bill and his wife, the former Nedra Anderson, are proud of their family, which includes children Bryan Miller, Janet Hall and Dana Bueker; and grandchildren, Destiny Miller, Jason and Todd Hall and Angie Bueker.

He is an engineer at Trompeter Electronics in Westlake Village, California, and says his career highlights include becoming an engineer and managing 120 employees. Although he is not the star of Bullfighters in Nogales as predicted, our former Avilla High basketball star player still enjoys shooting a few with the kids and the fellows he works with.

Serving his country from 1953 to 1955, Bill remembers loaning his good suit to a friend for the evening. The next day the friend was shipped out to the states and the suit apparently went along, as Bill never saw it again. Not a whole lot bothers Bill, but he thinks kids in gangs and their abuse of drugs today are a shame.

Bill remembers classmates from high school days and all the good friends along the way he can never forget. He sends regrets but promises there will be plenty of time for a reunion two years from now.

Okay, Marilyn, on the count of twenty, come up for air. One.....two....three...

Our researchers weren't very successful in their several attempts toward obtaining an update from this branch of the Miller clan. Charles did, however, send the following note:

"Thanks for your concern, but we shall not be attending class reunions. We have a full schedule otherwise. Thanks, may God be with you all. Sincerely, Charles and Marge Miller"

Phyllis (Miller) Buker

8475 Beacon Blvd Apt 317
Fort Myers FL 33907
941-936-6628

Although Phyllis was predicted to have married Bob Buker, it was a cracked crystal ball which foretold her life in a semi. A widow for the past five years, Phyllis has many pleasant memories of her life together with Bob. Their son and daughter presented them with a granddaughter and two grandsons. Her son was named Young Executive of the Year in 1987 and is listed in the Hall of Automotive Fame. Her daughter is manager and publisher of the Apartment Blue Book in Nashville, Tennessee.

Phyllis worked in the office at Purdue University and at Kraft Foods before taking on the present position of making lunches in a cafeteria. She has a new computer to keep her busy in spare time. A member of Villas Wesleyan Church, she likes to paint and also plays golf "when the snow birds go home".

People who park in handicap spaces are on her list of unfavorites; and she remembers from high school days, the good times, as well as the bad. She tells us there have been too many embarrassing moments to remember, and she kept them all a secret.

In Memory of Barbara

"Have you ever gone a-walkn'
on a brightn' sunny day?
Maybe you were talkn'
with someone along the way,
When you noticed nature's beauty and thought you'd stop n' stare, but almost out of duty
a bouquet you did prepare.
You picked those pretty flowers
and put them in a vase,
for without some love and water
they surely would debase.
Now sometimes God goes walkn'
on a bright and sunny day,
and He sees a soul so precious
as He walks along the way.
He sees the inward beauty
the courage and the trust,
So He stops to pick that flower which time has said He must.
Seeking beauty and seeking love
He always takes the best,
His promise is total peace above and our eternal rest."

"A heart of gold stopped beating
two smiling eyes at rest,
When God takes away the one you love
He always takes the best."

....Wayne Benack

Barbara married Bob Mynhier, and after living in Kimmell they made their home in Ohio and Pennsylvania before settling at Cresaptown, Maryland. Two sons blessed the home and six grandchildren were welcome additions. A church organist, Barbara's strong faith in her maker was her mainstay as she suffered the ravages of cancer. She was a well-loved and admired member of the community.

Jeanne (Moore) Grimm

10294 E 100S
Avilla IN 46710
219-897-3317

Instead of growing up and running a lollipop factory, after high school, Jeanne went into competition with Peter Eckrich. There was no comparison, however, with the home-processed meats which could be purchased at Moore's Meat Market. Jeanne and her father were well-known for their fine meat products.

And then there was a wedding. It was a Grimm job, but somebody had to do it. Marry Ben, that is. The Grimms produced their own little set of fairy tales: Debra, Sue, Tracy and Kelly. Ben and Jeanne are especially fond of the grandchildren which leave fingerprints on the doors and in their hearts. With their camper, they have joined the throngs of motorists who use American highways as a route to favorite playgrounds. An expert seamstress, Jeanne, in recent years, has made the craft show circuit with her wares. She has cut out, sewn and stuffed enough toy animals to fill a zoo. Shipshewana is a favorite place to spend a sunny day. Floral arrangements catch her fancy, as well.

John Noffze

41 Fairway Dr
Alexandria IN 46001
317-724-4530

Anyone trying to find John during the winter months will need to go to 591 Seaview Ct., South Seas North A-405, Marco Island, FL 33937, phone 941-642-0352. He retired and sold his funeral homes in Alexandria and Summitville two years ago. He still owns Park View Cemetery but reports having good help in operating it.

John and the former Beverly Worman have been married for 44 years and report their greatest joys are the grandchildren (Jason, 21; Jennifer, 19; Angie, 18; and John, 9) their children (Pamela, 43; Barry, 42; and Kim, 40) presented.

John is active in Marco Island and Alexandria Lutheran Churches. He belongs to many service clubs and lodges, as well as the Madison County 4-H Fair Board. He enjoys boating with family and friends, traveling, and taking grandchildren on special vacations.

He was chosen by his peers as president of Indiana Funeral Directors Association in 1993-94 and served on its board of directors for two years, as well as president of the Indiana Coroners Association. John also reports, "I, a red hot Republican, received the Sagamore of the Wabash from Governor Evan Bayh in 1995." He is too busy to allow time for pet peeves.

Johnny, be good!

John and his prize, The Johnny Be Good.

George Probst

602 N. Main St.
Kendallville IN 46755
219-347-4187

Voted the best-looking boy of the class, George's 1951 fortune teller said he would be in Hollywood as an understudy for Clark Gable. If George ever went to Hollywood, he kept it from us.

George and his wife, the former Roxie Hicks, list the greatest accomplishments as raising their seven children: Cynthia, Michelle and Rebeca Probst, Elizabeth Meade, Vicki Slone, Kimberly and Susan High. They are equally proud of their grandchildren: David and Eric Meade, Kelby and Jenny Probst, Tabatha, Roxanne and Nathan Slone.

Mahoney Foundry in Kendallville employed George as a plant superintendent. He lists fishing and sports as recreational interests. Dressing up in a suit and tie is a least favorite activity; and George says people who talk too much and say nothing rank right down there at the bottom of his list with people who talk when sports are on TV.

George remembers being thrown out of the gym at noon for throwing shoes over the balcony. He then received additional punishment of being kept out of the gym for a month. The real culprit shoe-thrower was Beverly Uhl; but George, being a true gentleman, never ratted on her until now.

Evelyn (Scheurich) Steward

1316 County Rd 68
Garrett IN 46738
219-637-3949

Evelyn finally filled her "Despair Barrel" with doilies - and a few diapers, but she discontinued her efforts to entice Donald Offord to the altar. Donald Steward became her chosen one.

Remaining a full-time Mom while the children were young, Evelyn entered the work force after her birdies had left the nest. She retired from Lincoln National Life Co. in 1992 where she was a computer operator - check disbursement analyst in the treasury department for fifteen years.

She and her husband have a son and two daughters - Michael Steward, Cynthia Koldewey and Jodi Zahm; and seven grandchildren - Nathan, Brandon and Samantha Steward, Sarah and Joel Koldewey, and Stephen and Daniel Zahm.

The Stewards purchased a home in Marco Island, Florida, in 1995 and became official snow birds. They hope to repeat the southern migration for years to come. Evelyn enjoys traveling and collecting crystal figurines, but when "up north", she tries to spend quality time with her grandchildren. Planting flowers and maintaining two homes doesn't leave much time for anything else, she says.

Proud moments in Evelyn's life include seeing all three of her children graduate from high school as members of the National Honor Society.

People who only see things their way and are quick to place the blame on someone else rather than admit their mistakes are high on Evelyn's hit list.

Okay, Evelyn, let Marilyn and Eleanor have a turn being the tallest.

Marilyn (Scheurich) Reynolds

7849 E Cree Lake Rd S

Kendallville IN 46755

219-347-3115

Marilyn was supposed to have been racing in Fort Wayne's Powder Puff Derby every Sunday afternoon, but her main event was her family. She was married to Hugh Reynolds shortly after graduation and had five children: Sharlene, Deborah, Steven, David and Sherri. She now has eleven grandchildren.

Her daughter and son-in-law, Sherri and Kenneth Ramey, converted their two-car garage into a house. Marilyn lives there and cares for her grandchildren right next door during the hours she isn't working at Colwell General. She is a Hoosier and Chicago Bulls fan and likes car and truck races. Marilyn says if she gets bored, she watches summer reruns.

Marilyn is pictured here with daughters Deborah, Sherri and Sharlene holding floral arrangements Marilyn made for Sherri's wedding.

Thomas F. Schlotterer

1933-1989

In Memoriam

Thomas F. Schlotterer, 55, Garrett, died Thursday (January 5, 1989) in Lutheran Hospital, Fort Wayne.

A Garrett resident since 1960, he was a parts department foreman at General Electric in Fort Wayne where he had been employed for 37 years.

Born June 2, 1933, in Avilla, he was the son of Fred and Mary (Biedrzycki) Schlotterer. His mother survives in Garrett.

Also surviving are four sisters, Barbara Overy and Virgilia Schlotterer, both Garrett; Sally Kurtz of Fowler; and Susan Severson of LaOtto.

Services were Monday in St. Joseph Catholic Church with Father Gary Sigler officiating. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Garrett, where the VFW and American Legion, Garrett, conducted military services.

McKee Miles Funeral Home, Garrett, was in charge of arrangements.

Memorials may be directed to Masses at the church, the St. Joseph School, or the American Heart Association.

Rosemary (Sheets) Gerig

321 N Dewey St
Auburn IN 46706
219-925-3894

After graduation, Rosemary went to Olivet Nazarene College for three years, then transferred to Ball State University. Her first year of teaching was in Kendallville's North Side Elementary School. She now teaches first grade at Auburn's McKenney-Harrison School and says each year it seems to get harder. "Kids have changed and so have I." She also teaches parenting classes and is a church organist.

Married in 1955, she and her husband Ardon, who died from a brain tumor in 1995, have two children: Roger and Rhoda. Rhoda, possibly influenced by her mother's career, is also a teacher.

An adventurous couple, the Gerigs made trips to Jamaica, to Mexico, and even took whitewater rafting trips. She lists hobbies as counted cross stitch, reading, camping, travelling, decorating, flower arranging and gardening. As if that weren't enough, she gets involved in the Miss Northeast Pageant.

Active in the Auburn community, the Gerigs purchased an old apartment building and donated it to the DeKalb County Operation Shelter, a non-profit organization that provides housing for the homeless. To be called the "Gerig House Center for Hope, the building, when renovated, will house 40 individuals. A member of the Missionary Church of Auburn, Rosemary teaches child evangelism classes and Sunday School.

A tinge of pink appeared in her cheeks when she discovered a May 1 deadline for her "story" - and it was the middle of June. She recalls all the fun in putting on the Junior and Senior Plays.

Neil Simon

724 Kindred
Richardson TX 75080
214-690-5719

Neil has had an interesting 45 years since leaving classmates behind. Uncle Sam saw fit to send him to Germany during a two-year stint in the Army. He put up red iron on steel construction; worked with his father in their LaOtto Service Station; was a head sawyer on a portable sawmill, cutting blocking for steel mills and Reynolds Aluminum; had a fish camp - Simon's Marina 100 miles west of Fort Worth; and ended his career building swimming pools in Dallas, Texas.

A divorced grandfather, Neil thinks his epitaph should read "Class Clown", although other class members will give him the green flag for his driving ability and taxi service. He drove his grandfather's 1929 Chevy until it "bit the dirt" - after he had wrecked it. Next came the 1941 classic heap which carried the boys to Chicago at a whopping 40 miles per hour.

Although he has been a resident of Texas for a number of years, Neil prefers Indiana in the summer. He says emphysema has stopped some of his fun, but he has seen some pretty country and made some very good friends down through the years.

Neil was supposed to have been one of the world's great scientists, having invented a device for enabling people to get to work on time. Sounds as if he just might have fulfilled that prophecy.

Carole (Smith) Halferty

PO Box 112
South Milford IN 46786
219-351-2341

The girl who was supposed to be unmarried, working in an insurance agency and raising cats and dogs fooled the experts. Instead, Carole married classmate Lynn Halferty, and they have four children: Dan, Randy, Doug and Cathy. Grandchildren include Scott, Heather, Erik, Iden and Beki; and great-grandchildren are Madison and Moriah. A new one is due any time.

Carole worked as a secretary for Group Dekko for 26-1/2 years before retiring in June 1995. Her time is now devoted to crafts, as she and her daughter have a craft shop. They enjoy attending craft showings, as well.

America's Funniest Home Videos would probably pay dearly to have a copy of Carole's most embarrassing moment. About twenty years ago on a winter day, she and Lynn stopped at Haffner's (now Newberry's); and like any good husband, Lynn waited in the car for Carole to do her shopping. The ice-coated entrance to the store was sloped; and Carole was wearing high-heeled shoes. Need we say more? But wait. She slid under the car, not once, not twice, but three times before she finally got a grip on that ice. Glancing into the store window, Carole could see a lineup of employees watching her performance. And what was Lynn's reaction? "What are you doing? Did you get what you wanted?" It appears our attentive husband missed seeing the head bobbing up and down outside his car window. Carole's shopping was forgotten.

Lynn and Carole have lived in South Milford for 32 years and are growing old gracefully together.

Donn Snell

538 N Main St
Hicksville OH 43526

Donn only plays piano after martinis

Donn says he is independently single and loves it that way. He has two sons, Kimloy Jay and Brent; two grandchildren and two step-grandchildren. In 1983, Brent was selected to help carry the torch for the opening ceremonies of the Ohio Special Olympics. He was then chosen as one of the select few to represent the state of Ohio at the International Special Olympics in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The day after Kim's 19th birthday, Donn called him at his U. S. Army post to offer congratulations on a newborn daughter. Kim said, "Dad, I'm sorry to make you a grandpa." The reply? "Son, there's not an airport hangar big enough for my head today!"

He retired from the Hicksville Bank in 1992 and now owns Rainbow Pools & Spas and Parkview Apartment complex. A member of the First Presbyterian Church, he is a member and past president of Hicksville Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis Club, Masonic Lodge #478, Eagles Lodge #2556, American Legion Post #223, and a past board member of Defiance County Mental Retardation, OUADCO Rehabilitation Center, American Red Cross, and Salvation Army. In 1976 Donn was recognized in Who's Who in America by acting as chairperson of Hicksville Community for America's Bicentennial Celebration.

The boy with the prettiest hair was predicted to be modeling for the Wildroot Cream Oil Corporation. His hair is now long and blonde, but as for the modeling, he didn't say. He likes antique and classic cars, especially convertibles, enjoys traveling and hopes to do more in the future. "Herbie" says he will party anytime anywhere with anyone! His pet peeves are few; however, he'd like to overhaul our welfare system. He says, "many of the needy still need - and many of the greedy still cheat."

In the red face department, Donn recalls an occasion very early in his banking career when he was trying to impress a correspondent New York banker. A mentally slow lady walked into Donn's office, put her arms around him, kissed his cheek, and said, "I love you Donnie." In offering a stumbling explanation of the lady's problem to the visiting banker, Donn made matters worse, and became even more embarrassed by the situation. He says an event like that today would be a breeze - he could "run with it."

From the past Donn recalls taking pictures and being threatened by the classmates who were being photographed; the class plays, the senior trip; and sneaking out of the room without being caught by Arlo Schilling. Does anyone remember why Donn got lost in the subway on the senior trip?

I just washed my hair and can't do a thing with it.

.....1951 - Comedian Joe Piscopo is born.....

Wretha (Stice) Douglas

5114 Nevada Ave
Fort Wayne IN 46815
219-749-4416

Wretha, widowed on September 23, 1979, was married to Kenneth Douglas. They have three sons: Ken Jr., Steve and Marvin; and two granddaughters, Blair and Eva. Wretha was a secretary/bookkeeper to the manager of purchasing and scheduling at the time of her retirement. Wretha is a past president of the Sweet Adelines and a past president and board member of Statewood Park Neighbor Association. She has travelled in Canada, Mexico, Jamaica, Grand Cyman Islands and most of the United States, including Hawaii. She enjoys flower gardening, genealogy and reading in spare time. Proud moments include the births of her children and grandchildren; seeing her oldest son graduate from Indiana State and then obtain his Master's degree from the Colorado School of Mining; and sharing in the experience of Ken obtaining his pilot's license.

She isn't particularly fond of people who tell you one thing and then do another. Voted the girl with the prettiest hair in 1951, Wretha could easily win that title again in 1996. Embarrassing moments from the past include forgetting her lines in the senior play and being visited by Mr. Helmer after dumping water out of the hotel window on the senior trip. She also remembers being chased by dogs and falling down on a Christmas card sales trip with Donn Snell and LaVera Knach.

Teachers - Miss Miller and the fun in Junior and Senior Plays - Mr. Henley and all those crazy marching band formations; and classmates - good friendships with LaVera, Wanda, Jeanne, Barbara and others - are memories Wretha treasures.

Beverly (Uhl) Shank

7426 E 100N
Avilla IN 46710
219-897-2672

After spending the first half century of her life in Avilla, Bev moved to the country and says the past five years of farm living have been great. She and husband, Sam Shank, completely restored the former Floyd Keck home after it had been partially destroyed and fully damaged by fire.

She and Sam are the parents of Darcy (Taylor), who lives in Idaho; Mike who lives near Fort Wayne; and Pat, a Connecticut resident. The three children have married and multiplied; and there are six grandchildren. Sam and Bev also provided a home for foreign exchange high school students.

Primarily a homemaker, Bev also worked part-time eleven years at DeLucenays, eleven years at the Avilla Medical Clinic; and for the past two years, she has held various positions in the Noble County Court House.

A member of Mt. Pleasant Lutheran Church, she sings in the choir. She also enjoys needlework, working with stained glass and flowers under glass. A dearest love, however, is genealogy. Her hobby, combined with one of her work assignments in the Noble County Clerk's office resulted in wills, estates, probate records, divorces and guardianships all being properly indexed and filed for the convenience of employees and others who are researching family records. Bev says her traveling days are over. She prefers to stay put in her country home. Vacationing in Germany, Italy and Mexico allowed her the opportunity to make contact with one of the exchange students.

I'm wearing my new pink panties with lace, too - wanna see'm?

Bev doesn't admit to having an embarrassing moment, but she does recall the time she wore her nightwear to school - high school, that is. Having overslept and not paying attention to the clothes she hurriedly jumped into (or didn't jump into), she didn't discover jammies still covering her bottom until class had convened.

A fond memory is the senior trip to New York and Washington D. C.

Bev's blood boils when someone tells her, "I have IT, you can copy IT," and six months later that individual still hasn't found IT.

Voted the noisiest girl, she can still hold her own in a room full of talkers - and can usually accomplish the most.

Marilyn (Walker) Charnov

290 Michaels Circle
Oldsmar FL 34677
813-785-2068

After graduation from high school, Marilyn continued her education at Hanover College, where she obtained her B.A. degree in 1955. In 1957, Michigan State presented her with her B.S. degree. She worked as a laboratory technologist in Adrian, Michigan, and was appointed Senior Tech, the assistant director of laboratories.

In 1963, Marilyn married Abraham Charnov, a medical doctor; and the couple opened a private medical laboratory. Ten years later they sold to a conglomerate. In 1976 they moved to Florida where Marilyn played a lot of golf, as well as a very active part in several organizations.

She decided to return to the work force as a laboratory consultant for some medical laboratories. Marilyn was asked to manage a lab for a group practice and that kept her busy for eight years. The Charnovs travel quite a bit around Florida, with trips to Marco Island annually and a couple of yearly trips to the east coast.

Marilyn gains great satisfaction from helping needy families, but is disturbed by indecisiveness.

Telling a sales clerk that she would have to ask her father what size undergarment she wore wouldn't have been so bad - if you didn't know that she was 34 years old at the time.

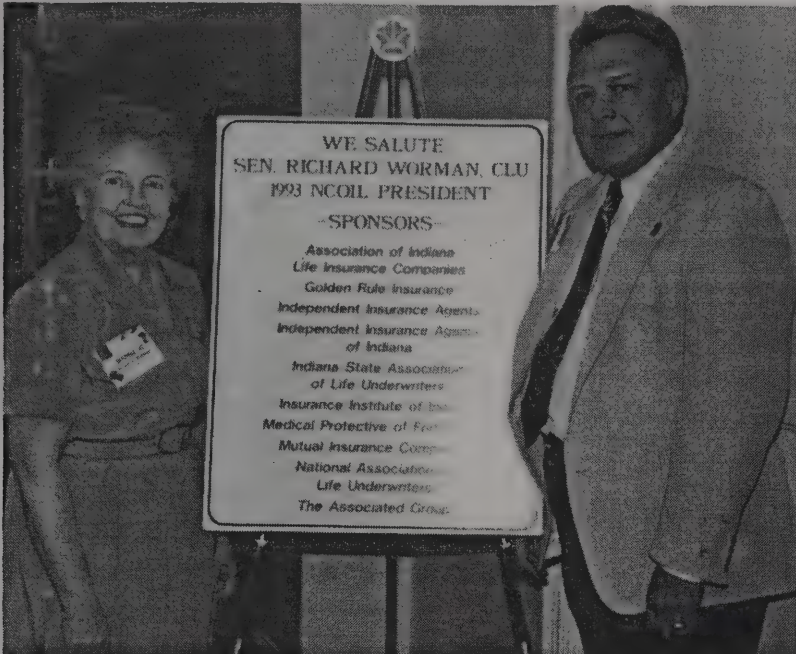

She recalls the senior trip, goofy times and friendships made, but never quite made the grade in becoming the pilot listed in class predictions.

*I can't believe we ate the whole thing.
Do you have any Tums?*

Richard Worman

9735 Gerig Rd
Leo IN 46765
219-627-3351

Having served the public for almost a lifetime, Richard's pet peeve is understandable. He doesn't care for the negative attitudes of some folks. Voted best dressed by the class in 1951, his television interviews make it appear that he has retained the title.

He has owned his insurance agency since 1957; he served in the Indiana House of Representatives in 1972 and has been representing Adams, Allen, DeKalb and Steuben Counties in the Indiana Senate since 1978. His list of career awards is outstanding: Golden Apple Award, Guardian of Small Business, National Federation of Independent Business Award, Child Safety Award, Walter J. Benneville Health Care Award, and National Council of Insurance Legislators, Presidential Award.

He is especially proud of his major legislative accomplishments: insurance company solvency and regulation; child restraint seat; child support legislation; health care pre-approval procedures; financial institution regulations; community development financing; aid to families with autistic children and economic development.

Richard and his wife, the former Marna Neuhouser, have five children: Terry Jo, Renny, Denny, Rex and Tammy; and 18 grandchildren.

He is a lay leader and lay speaker in the United Methodist Church and is active in the Gideons and Fort Wayne Rescue Mission. He served as president of National Council of Legislatures in 1993 and was appointed chairman of Indiana Senate Insurance & Financial Institutions in 1978, a position he still holds.

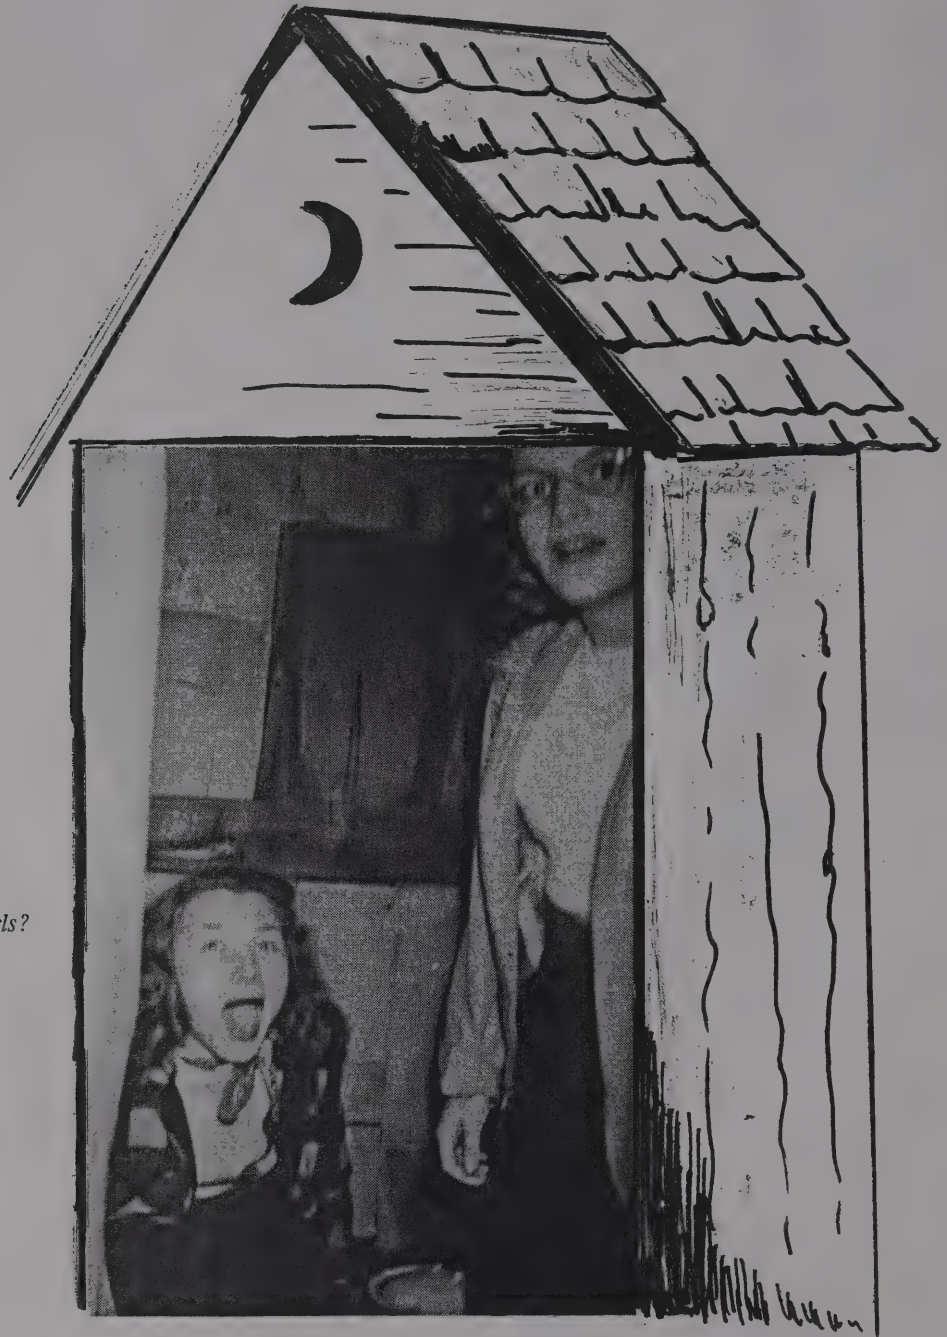

Dick was supposed to have been working as a janitor in a movie theater, after having divorced his fourth wife. The Senator, still with his first and only wife, apparently took a different trail in life. From days gone by, he recalls the friendship, care and concern of classmates and teachers.

.....1951 - Pair of pants sells for $8.95.....

The shyest boy in class hasn't changed. He is so shy, he has almost disappeared. Our spies' best information led Carole to Bob's supposed home at the south edge of Kendallville; but no one answered the knock at the door. We're still hunting - apparently in all the wrong places.

Is he in there, girls?

Wanda (Robart) Pfafman

108 Old Bog Rd

Avilla IN 46710

219-897-2054

Although Wanda wore a wedding gown instead of a cap and gown, she has always been considered a member of the Class of '51 by her friends and classmates. She and Bud Pfafman report a happy 46 years of married life plus a family they adore. They are rightfully proud of the four who grew into fine adults and loving parents. Children Vicki, Gary, Kathy and Gregg increased the count with 11 who call Bud and Wanda Grandpa and Grandma.

For 17 years Wanda's was a familiar face behind the counter of DeLucenay's Drug Store. After DeLucenay's closed, Wanda moved on up the street to work at Farmer's Mutual Insurance Company for 18 years, eight of which she served as manager. She is an active member of Calvary Methodist Church and participated in Avilla Chamber of Commerce activities during her term at the insurance company. She also served on the MICA Board in Indianapolis.

Easy-going Wanda says there isn't much of anything that creates troubled waters for her, but she does recall a time she wasn't too happy with the world - to be more specific - a certain over-protective principal. It seems that she rode along to a Panther basketball game with Bud and his parents. Coach Strycker, under orders from Kenneth Helmer, told Bud that he would only be allowed to play one quarter because his girlfriend had come to the game with him. Wanda, do you remember who won the game?

Madonna (Ley) Koch

133 S Main St
Avilla IN 46710
219-897-2741

Although Madonna wasn't there on graduation day, she was an early part of the Class of '51 and has continued friendships with classmates. She worked at Jim Koons' grocery for 5-1/2 years, but then Rudy Koch put a ring on her finger. She and Rudy adopted four children, Pat, Carl, Lisa and Mary Ann, who presented them with 13 grandchildren. Rudy passed away three days before their 40th wedding anniversary.

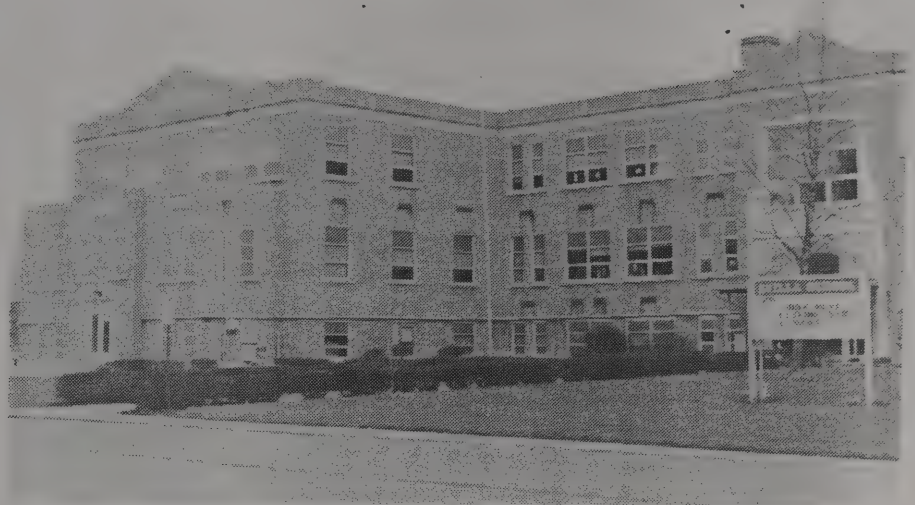

Madonna is still working 10-12 hours per day, 6 days a week, at Krafts in Kendallville. This leaves little time for recreation. She does enjoy reading and spending time with her family. An avid square dancer, she recalls the time she, LaVera and friends danced at the Twin Barns at least once a week. She also remembers getting stuck in the mud at LaVera's and the girls had to push her out. A pet peeve? Alarm clocks!

Donald Bell Salem, Oregon

Now retired, Donald worked 29 years in Oregon plywood mills. He and his wife Phyllis have a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Leshia. Leshia's two sons, Brandon and Matthew are shown in the photograph. Donald and Phyllis have three grandchildren and live near Salem, Oregon.

It's sad. The last of the three buildings where we were educated has fallen victim to the demands of a new generation. Gone forever is the ceiling at LaOtto which was decorated with paper wads shot through our bean shooters. The old Avilla Assembly Hall where Kenneth Helmer, with eyes closed, could beckon with a forefinger and bring a guilty student to the principal's office is only a faded memory. The Sisters of St Mary's also have a new building in which to mold young minds and warm young bottoms. But that's progress, you see.

Avilla School

The first school bell rang in this area more than 150 years ago. The initial school in Section 4 of Noble County's Allen Township was constructed in 1837. This was a one-room building, with all eight grades taught by the school "marm", who boarded with parents of students and received $1.00 per week for her efforts. Several of these one-room buildings quickly popped up in and around Avilla as settlers moved into the area and needed to educate their young within walking or horseback riding distance.

St Mary's School

St. Mary's School was first established in 1855, and in 1878 a school building was erected. The old building was torn down after being replaced with a new elementary school in the early 1980s. Students from St. Mary's, as well as LaOtto's Elementary School joined the Avilla eighth grade graduates to comprise Avilla's High School student body.

Prior to the one-room school, children were taught in the home. Usually, the teacher was either a parent or a neighboring teenager who had gone through eighth grade. Completion of eight grades was all that was needed to become successfully employed until the early 1900s. "Higher" education then became the vogue, and high schools were added as an optional course of study for those so inclined. A few decades later, the high school diploma became almost a necessity; and children were expected to complete 12 grades instead of eight. A truant officer assured proper school attendance at least until age 16.

Invention of the automobile, and eventually the school bus, made teaching larger groups in central locations possible. One-room school houses became relics of the past; and school "marms" with eighth grade diplomas were replaced by licensed college graduates, specialists in their chosen fields. Our teachers.

The first school in LaOtto was held on the second floor of what was used by Harlan's Hardware during the forties when the Class of '51 was cracking the books. The building where this class was educated (shown here) was constructed in 1917, and it housed all 12 grades until 1937. From 1937 until 1965 the first eight grades were taught in LaOtto. A new building was then constructed to accomodate the first five grades. The old LaOtto School building was purchased and used by the Wesleyan Church until its 1992 date with the wrecking ball.

Avilla's High School originated more than a century ago. In 1888, the first class (four students) graduated after completing a two-year course. In 1892, the course of study was changed to three years; and in 1907, Avilla High School became certified when it adopted a four-year course. In 1966, the 78th graduating class closed the high school doors, and Avilla's school was retained in the East Noble School Corporation for elementary education only. The present building, constructed in 1928, was demolished and replaced with a new school complex in 1993.

Eighth grade graduates from these three schools united to become Avilla freshmen in the autumn of 1947. Four years later, the Class of '51 became the 63rd group to obtain diplomas from Avilla High School. From Avilla came Connie Beckberger, Audrey Buehrer, Boyd Campbell, Robert Coil, George Diehm, Eleanor Dressler, Donna Frederick, Ann Garman, Donald Gienger, Lynn Halferty, Franklin Harter, Marilyn Hippenhammer, Charles Miller, Phyllis Miller, John Noffze, George Probst, Evelyn Scheurich, Rosemary Sheets, Carole Smith, Beverly Uhl, Marilyn Walker and Robert Wright. St. Mary's contributed Joseph Duehmig, James Helmer, Mary Helmkamp and Thomas Schlotterer. Dale Crist, LaVera Knach, Bill Miller, Barbara Moore, Jeanne Moore, Marilyn Scheurich, Neil Simon, Donn Snell, Wretha Stice, and Richard Worman came from neighboring LaOtto School. Keith Anderson, Luella Anderson, Winona Angel, Donald Bell, Betty DeLong, Mary Lou Edwards, Leroy Halsey, Lynn Kurtz, Gene Lash, Madonna Ley, Wanda Robart, Alberta Sayles and Lester Winslow left us before graduation day.

My Million Memories

by James J. Metcalfe

I have a million memories to keep me occupied
And some of them I tell the world and some of them I hide.
The memories of long ago and those of yesterday
Including all the people and the things I heard them say.
The satisfaction of success; the disappointment deep;
The bitterness and sweetness and the dreams that filled my sleep;
The happiness of every smile; the sorrow of a tear;
With confidence in progress and defeat in every fear.
I have a million memories of pictures that are gone
And whether they are bright or dark, they help me carry on.

Thanks for the memory
